

ARMOR C21

Version: 21-05-2018

A compact gaming case, but full of style.

CHARACTERISTICS

Our most compact case is designed for gamers who start assembling their own PCs with style. Its tempered glass front gives it a touch of excellence that will not leave anyone indifferent. Its side window not only improves the overall design of the Armor C21 case but also allows to look inside the chassis and provide a deeper perspective. It is compatible with liquid cooling system of 120mm and allows to incorporate up to 7 fans distributed throughout the chassis.
